Homeowners Impacted by Hurricane Harvey Invited to Attend Free Disaster Relief Events

HOPE NOW Alliance Provides Financial Counseling in Partnership with Stewart Title, the City of Houston, the City of Humble and Local Mortgage, Housing and Insurance Companies

HOUSTON, TX (September 21, 2017) — There is now hope for homeowners impacted by Hurricane Harvey and feeling the financial burden of flooding and other damages. The HOPE NOW Alliance, in partnership with Stewart Title, the City of Houston, the City of Houston Housing and Community Development Department and the City of Humble, is hosting free HOPE NOW Disaster Relief Events.

“If your home was flooded and you’re feeling the financial burden, please know that you don’t have to walk away,” said Eric Selk, Executive Director for the HOPE NOW Alliance. “Families looking for answers can discuss their options at no charge to understand resources available and steps to take to minimize Harvey’s financial impact.”

These multiday events will be hosted in both Houston and Humble.

- September 26–28 at the Humble Civic Center
8233 Will Clayton Pkwy, Humble, TX 77338
11 a.m. – 8 p.m.
- October 3–5 at the Chinese Community Center
9800 Town Park Dr, Houston, TX 77036
11 a.m. – 8 p.m.

Homeowners attending these events will have access to financial industry experts including mortgage servicers, HUD-approved nonprofit housing counselors, FEMA and insurance providers. These financial experts will be available to discuss solutions, provide advice, check financial assistance eligibility and enroll homeowners in the right programs.

About HOPE NOW

HOPE NOW is the industry-created alliance of mortgage servicers, investors, counselors, and other mortgage market participants, brought together by the Financial Services Roundtable, Housing Policy Council and Mortgage Bankers Association, that has developed and is implementing a coordinated plan to help as many homeowners as possible prevent foreclosure and stay in their homes.
