

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 15, 2012

Texas Land Title Association
512.472.6593 | tltat@tltat.com

North Texas Title Professional Receives Prestigious Award from Statewide Title Industry Association

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state's oldest trade associations, awarded Janet Minke, Vice President of Underwriting Support Services at Alliant National Title Insurance Company in Boyd, the esteemed James H. Garst President's Award during their Annual Conference and Business Meeting in Fort Worth. The award recognizes the achievements of an individual who has shown outstanding service to the TLTA president during his or her year in office.

"Everyone in the Texas title business knows Janet because of her countless contributions to the industry over the past 35 years," said Phyllis Mulder, 2011-12 TLTA President and CLO/Executive Vice President of Alliant National Title Insurance Company. "We are delighted to honor Janet with this award in recognition of her tireless and cheerful undertaking of any challenge needing strong intellect, leadership and follow-through."

Minke began closing real estate transactions more than 40 years ago, starting as an escrow assistant for a fee attorney. Before joining Alliant National, she spent 10 years in national and regional roles as a business process manager and corporate trainer for national underwriting companies.

She is a skilled educator and trainer, frequently presenting continuing education programs for Alliant National as well as for the Texas Land Title Association and other industry groups.

Minke is very active in TLTA, having the distinction of being Title Person of the Year in 2006 and being a Certified Title Insurance Associate. She currently serves on the Regulatory, Certification and Education Committees and various sub-committees and special task force projects.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Social Science from the University of North Texas with a Texas Secondary Teaching Certificate.

About TLTA

Founded in 1908 and serving more than 11,000 professionals, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the land title industry in Texas. TLTA members provide certainty, efficiency and security to real estate transactions by conducting title searches, examinations, closings and issuing title insurance to protect real property owners and mortgage lenders against losses from defects in titles. For more information about TLTA visit www.tlta.com.