Coppell Professional Receives Prestigious Award from Statewide Title Industry Association

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state's oldest trade associations, has awarded Pam Butler in Coppell, Texas, with the esteemed E. Gordon Smith Scholarship Award. The prestigious award is given to an individual who scores the highest grade on the exam at the 2012 TLTA Land Title School.

"We are thrilled to present Pam with this award for her achievement," said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA.

A title professional for more than 20 years, Pam served as the State Residential Manager for United Title of Louisiana before most recently serving as National Closing Manager for Stewart Lender Services, overseeing both refinances and REO closings for national lenders and mortgage companies. In her free time, she enjoys attending Dallas Stars and Texas Rangers games and traveling with her husband.

About TLTA

Founded in 1908 and serving more than 11,000 professionals, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the land title industry in Texas. TLTA members provide certainty, efficiency and security to real estate transactions by conducting title searches, examinations, closings and issuing title insurance to protect real property owners and mortgage lenders against losses from defects in titles.
