

Republic Title Announces Promotion of Melissa Schuelke to Executive Vice President of Commercial Operations

Dallas, Texas — Republic Title is pleased to announce the promotion of Melissa Schuelke to Executive Vice President of Commercial Operations. A seasoned industry leader with nearly three decades of experience, Schuelke will continue to lead and elevate the company's Commercial Division.

Schuelke brings 27 years of transaction experience spanning residential properties, land development, and complex national commercial multi-site transactions. Since joining Republic Title in 2011, she has played a critical role in strengthening the company's commercial platform and operational excellence.

As Executive Vice President of Commercial Operations, Melissa Schuelke oversees the strategic direction and day-to-day operations of the company's commercial title division, ensuring efficient processes, risk management, and exceptional service on complex commercial transactions. She works closely with executive leadership, underwriting, and business development teams to support growth, strengthen client relationships, and maintain the highest standards of operational excellence.

Throughout her career, Schuelke has been recognized for her operational expertise, deep industry knowledge, and steady leadership on high-profile transactions.

“Melissa's experience, integrity, and leadership have been instrumental to the continued growth of our Commercial Division,” said Bo Feagin, President of Republic Title. “Her promotion reflects both her exceptional track record and our confidence in her vision for the future.”

Schuelke is widely respected for her collaborative leadership style and dedication to mentoring team members, helping cultivate the next generation of title professionals.

Republic Title congratulates Melissa Schuelke on this well-deserved promotion and looks forward to her continued leadership in advancing the company's commercial operations.
