

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

National Investors Promotes Summer Swope to Vice President

Austin, Texas – Summer Swope has been promoted to vice president of marketing and real estate education with National Investors Title Insurance Company, a subsidiary of Investors Title Company. In this role, Ms. Swope oversees the strategic direction and execution of Texas-based agency marketing initiatives and real estate education programs with a focus on promoting technology solutions to support partner business goals.

“We are proud to recognize Summer’s accomplishments with this well-earned promotion,” said Brandi Abercrombie, senior vice president – Texas operations and education. “As a collaborative and insightful leader who champions technology-driven solutions, Summer is a trusted resource for National Investors agents as they advance their learning and business development efforts.”

Prior to joining National Investors, Ms. Swope served as a personal development trainer for a national title company, where she consulted with realtors and title agents on relationship management and strategies to elevate their business. She has also served as a sales executive for national and regional title companies where she delivered educational programs and grew market share.

Ms. Swope earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in psychology and legal studies from Texas Tech University. Her volunteer work includes serving as a foster child advocate with Court Appointed Special Advocates for the South Plains, Inc., an organization that empowers community members to support the best interests of children in the foster care system, and serving with Family Promise, Inc., whose mission is to prevent and end homelessness for families with children.

National Investors Title Insurance Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Investors Title Company, a publicly held company whose stock is traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market® (Nasdaq: ITIC). National Investors is engaged in the business of issuing and underwriting title insurance policies through a network of agents located across Texas. The company consistently earns superior financial ratings from industry rating organizations such as AM Best, which assigns a Financial Strength Rating of A (Excellent) for its excellent ability to meet ongoing insurance obligations.
