Steve Ortega and Diana Reese Join Agents National Title Insurance Company (ANTIC), Expanding Texas Presence

New Agency Representatives Reflect Demand for Incenter Company's Sales-Building Services

FORT WORTH and HOUSTON, Texas — September 29, 2020 — Agents National Title Insurance Company \(ANTIC\), part of the Incenter corporate family, announces that Steve Ortega and Diana Reese have joined the company as agency representatives. Based in Texas, they are responsible for developing new agency relationships and providing ongoing support to ANTIC's independent agent partners.

Their appointments come as demand soars for ANTIC's services and technology-based solutions, which empower title agents and lenders to increase sales, and examine titles to close faster, with better data and insights. The company has grown its headcount more than 40% over the past two years, and is on track to quadruple revenues during that same period. ANTIC's acquisition by Incenter is further fueling its ability to add top talent and technologies to help independent title agents optimize their business.

"Steve Ortega and Diana Reese fit perfectly with our team of talented people who care about one another and are service obsessed. We are thrilled that they have chosen to work with us," said David Townsend, President, ANTIC.

"Steve and Diana are widely known and respected within the real estate and title communities. It is a pleasure to be working with them day to day," said Mark Batis, Texas Agency Manager, ANTIC.

Mr. Ortega, who is serving Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas from Fort Worth, has thirteen years of experience in banking and lending. Most recently, he spent four years with a national underwriter, helping title agents grow their relationships with realtors and lenders. He attended the Alex H. Halff Leadership Academy for high-potential young professionals in the title industry in 2018.

Ms. Reese, whose office is in Houston, has 20 years' experience in the title and real estate related industries, both in direct operations and as an agency representative for a national underwriter. She was a top producing realtor when she took time off to donate a kidney to her stepfather, and then rejoined the profession. She focuses on building tight networks with independent title agents and educating realtors, based on her 360-degree view of the home-buying process.
