Westcor Land Title Insurance Company promotes Angela Fling to Texas Region Manager.

Maitland, FL, June 18, 2020 -- Westcor Land Title Insurance Company proudly announces the promotion of Angela Fling to Texas Region Manager.

Angela Fling first joined Westcor in the Spring of 2019 and brought over 17 years of title agency compliance experience. Ms. Fling's hiring was a part of a strategic move for Westcor's overall plan for continued growth in its Texas region. She will be responsible for increasing market share and brand presence in the five states that make up the Texas region which include Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico and Texas.

"In her short time with Westcor, Angie has contributed significantly to the structured approach of the value-add proposition Westcor has with our independent agents in the Texas region. I am confident that with Angie's strong leadership, she and her team will help the company grow while seeking new and creative ways to support our agents," said Steve Black, SVP and Western States Area Manager.

"It's both a pleasure and privilege to serve as Regional Manager for Westcor Land Title Insurance Company. I am passionate about this industry and take pride in playing a vital role in the largest financial decision a consumer might ever make. My focus will remain on bringing value to our Independent Agency Network while being innovative in solutions to solve the problems of today's real estate industry.", said Angie Fling, Texas Region Manager.

Ms. Fling has been a part of the Texas Land Title Association for some time serving as a School Committee Chair, Education Advisory Chair and being a Legislative Liaison. She is currently expanding her involvement in other Land Title Associations within her region.
