CATIC Hires New Senior Vice President – National Account Manager

CATIC is pleased to announce that Kyle K. Rank, Esq., has joined the company as Senior Vice President – National Accounts Manager. In this position, Attorney Rank will oversee the national and multi-state division within The CATIC Family of Companies.

Kyle is a 30-plus year veteran of the title insurance industry, having held executive leadership positions for several regional title insurance underwriters and multi-state title agencies. He previously served as Executive Vice President, Business Development and Executive Vice President, Agency for two large regional title insurance underwriters, overseeing national agency expansion efforts and company revenue growth.

Other past positions that Kyle has held include service as a Chief Claims Counsel, Associate General Counsel, and Chief Compliance Officer for several national and regional title insurance underwriters, and General Counsel for several large title agencies. Kyle was also the President and co-owner of a large title agency in the Midwest.

Kyle has served on the Legislative Committee for the Missouri Land Title Association and has been a past speaker/panelist at several Land Title Association conferences. He has also taught continuing legal education courses for the National Business Institute, and has received awards for organizational excellence from the American Society of Quality.

James M. Czapiga, Esq., The CATIC Family of Companies President and CEO, commented, “We are very pleased to have Kyle join our growing team. We look forward to his insight and guidance as we expand into new markets and focus more on the multi-state and national agent segment. His background and experience are the perfect complement to our organic growth and brand-building strategies.”

Kyle is a graduate of Michigan State University (B.A.) and Washburn University School of Law (J.D.). He can be reached at KRank@CATIC.com.
