Austin-area Title Insurance Industry Executive Charles M. Craig Elected to Board of Statewide Trade Association

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state’s oldest trade associations, recently elected Charles M. Craig, Senior Vice President for Stewart Title Guaranty Company, to serve on TLTA’s Board of Directors.

“Charlie brings a wealth of experience to the position, and we’re excited to have him helping guide our association,” said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA. “His 35 years of industry expertise and in-depth legal knowledge will be a powerful addition to our board. We are honored to have him on our leadership team.”

Craig currently provides underwriting advice as Senior Underwriter for Stewart's Southwest Region and International business. As Stewart’s Associate General Counsel, he provides in-house legal representation to Stewart's corporate affiliates and agency services divisions across the U.S. Under Craig’s legal guidance, Stewart expanded Stewart’s title guaranty, insurance, reinsurance, and project consultation capabilities to over 80 countries.

Craig is licensed to practice law in the states of Texas and California, he is a member of the American Bar Association, the Association of Corporate Counsel, and the Real Estate, Probate & Trust Law and Insurance sections of the Texas and California state bar associations. He has been an active TLTA volunteer for many years, serving on TLTA’s important Regulatory Committee. He has also been a featured speaker at a number of real estate industry events, including the National Association of Realtors, Fannie Mae Corporation, Texas Land Title Association and numerous Stewart functions.
