AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state’s oldest trade associations, presented to Rep. Geanie Morrison (R-Victoria) an Outstanding Legislator Award during TLTA’s 2020 Virtual Annual Conference and Business Meeting.

“Representative Morrison shares our commitment to protecting Texans’ property rights,” said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA, “and her leadership on behalf of her constituents and our state during the last legislative session earned our deep respect and gratitude. We are honored to present Representative Morrison with this award recognizing her outstanding service to the citizens of Texas.”

Rep. Morrison is currently serving her eleventh term in the Texas Legislature. Her south Texas district includes Aransas, Calhoun, DeWitt, Goliad, Refugio, and Victoria counties. Prior to serving Texas House District 30, she served as Executive Director of the Governor's Commission for Women. She also served on the Texas Commission for Volunteerism and Community Service and the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission, both of which were appointments made by then Gov. George W. Bush.
