State Sen. Joan Huffman Honored by Statewide Trade Association with Outstanding Legislator Award

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state’s oldest trade associations, honored state Sen. Joan Huffman (R-Houston) with TLTA’s Outstanding Legislator Award during TLTA’s 2020 Virtual Annual Conference and Business Meeting.

“Senator Huffman shares our commitment to protecting Texans’ property rights,” said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA, “and her leadership as chair of the Senate’s State Affairs Committee on remote online notarization and other statewide issues has earned our deepest respect. We are pleased to honor her with this award recognizing her outstanding service to the citizens of Texas.”

Senator Huffman was first elected to the Texas Senate in 2008 and has been re-elected four times. Her diverse district includes portions of Brazoria, Fort Bend, and Harris counties. She currently serves as the Senate’s President Pro Tempore, chairs the Senate’s Redistricting Committee and the Committee on State Affairs, and is vice chair of the Senate Committee on Criminal Justice. She’s also a member of the Senate Committee on Finance and the state’s Legislative Budget Board.

Senator Huffman is an attorney, and she lives with her family in Houston.
