

Agents National Title Insurance Company (ANTIC), an Incenter company and leading provider of residential and commercial title insurance services that issues policies exclusively through its agents, announced today that Todd Mendolia has been hired as the Chief Operating Officer.

Mendolia is based out of Dallas, TX and will support ANTIC's regional and national agents while leading key initiatives supporting the geographic expansion of ANTIC.

Prior to joining ANTIC, Mendolia served in several critical operational and sales positions for some of the largest underwritten title companies. Most recently with First American Mortgage Solutions (FAMS) as the National Director of Sales. During his time at FAMS, Mendolia led both the operational and sales teams while driving sales efforts geared toward large regional lenders. Before his time at First American, Mendolia spent the majority of his career with the Lender Processing Services' business lines in roles such as SVP, Title Operations for LSI and Managing Director of LPS Default Title. Todd is a native of St. Louis, MO and a graduate of Lindenwood University in St. Charles, MO.

"I am beyond thrilled to be part of this leadership team" said Mendolia. "The stage is set to move ANTIC into an elite group of underwriters. I know we will be a disruptive force in the national underwriting space."
