State Rep. Hugh Shine Receives Outstanding Legislator Award From Statewide Trade Association

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state’s oldest trade associations, presented to state Rep. Hugh Shine (R-Temple) an Outstanding Legislator Award during TLTA’s Annual Conference and Business Meeting in Round Rock.

“Representative Shine shares our commitment to protecting Texans’ property rights,” said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA. “His leadership on the Homestead Certainty bill this session produced an important win for Texas real estate, earning our deepest respect and gratitude. We are honored to present Representative Shine with this award recognizing his outstanding service to the citizens of Texas.”

Representative Shine first served Bell County communities in the Texas House in the late 80s to early 90s. He returned to the Texas House in 2016 and won his current term in 2020. Rep. Shine is a member of the House’s Business and Industry Committee, which oversees many of the issues important to the title industry, and he sits on the House Ways and Means Committee, which is responsible for building the state’s budget.
