State Sen. Bryan Hughes Receives Outstanding Legislator Award From Statewide Trade Association

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state’s oldest trade associations, presented to state Sen. Bryan Hughes (R-Mineola) an Outstanding Legislator Award during TLTA’s Annual Conference and Business Meeting in Round Rock.

“Senator Hughes shares our commitment to protecting Texans’ property rights,” said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA. “His leadership as Chairman of the important Senate State Affairs Committee and his continued support for our state’s real estate marketplace have earned our deepest respect and gratitude. We are honored to present Senator Hughes with this award recognizing his outstanding service to the citizens of Texas.”

Senator Bryan Hughes is now serving his second term in the Texas Senate, representing the 16 counties of Senate District One in Northeast Texas. Before being elected to the Senate in 2016, he represented District Five in the Texas House of Representatives for 14 years.
