

NEWS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

TEXAS LAND TITLE ASSOCIATION

Paul R. Rodriguez

McAllen Title Industry Professional Elected President of Statewide Trade Association

June 22, 2022

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state’s oldest trade associations, recently installed Paul R. Rodriguez as President of TLTA for the coming year. Rodriguez is CEO of Valley Land Title Co. He will be TLTA’s 108th president.

“We’re excited and honored to welcome Paul into this important position at our organization,” said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA. “Paul has been a key player in our legislative outreach for years and has served with distinction on our board. He brings valuable expertise to the role of president, and he will be an outstanding leader for our organization over the next year.”

Rodriguez is a member of the TLTA PAC Board of Trustees, and he also serves as one of TLTA’s Local Legislative Liaisons, who help maintain effective lines of communication with the lawmakers who oversee Texas’ regulated title insurance industry.

Rodriguez joined the title insurance industry in 2006 after retiring from a 30-year commercial banking career. He graduated from Princeton University with a Bachelor of Arts in economics. He and his wife, Myrna, have been married for 42 years. They have 3 children and two grandsons.

###

About TLTA

Founded in 1908, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the Texas title insurance industry and currently serving more than 16,000 professionals involved in the safe and efficient transfer of real estate. In the course of their daily work, our membership serves over a million consumers each year. With active members in all of Texas’ 254 counties, TLTA membership comprises over 85 percent of the title insurance agents and underwriters licensed to do business in Texas. For more information about TLTA, visit www.tlta.com.