Texas Title Industry Focuses on the Future at Biennial “Day at the Capitol” Event

Texas Land Title Association to host legislative update and Capitol visits in Austin Feb. 2-3

AUSTIN, Texas – Dec. 7, 2014 – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of Texas’ oldest trade associations, will host its biennial “Day at the Capitol” program Feb. 2-3 in Austin. The two-day event will provide Texas title insurance professionals and supporters the opportunity to discuss issues that impact the title industry with colleagues and Texas legislators during the 84th Texas legislative session.

“TLTA’s Day at the Capitol is for every title industry professional and anyone who works in the industry,” said Dawn Moore, president of the TLTA Board of Directors. “It is an excellent opportunity for our members to learn about critical issues and opportunities facing the Legislature and speak directly with their legislators about the title industry and let them know how important it is for the future of Texas.”

TLTA’s “Day at the Capitol” program will begin with an orientation, legislative update and networking dinner on Monday, February 2nd at the AT&T Executive Education & Conference Center. Tuesday February 3rd will feature a breakfast with a guest speaker after which participants will go to the Capitol for appointments with their local legislators.

About TLTA

Founded in 1908 and serving more than 11,000 professionals, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the land title industry in Texas. TLTA members provide certainty, efficiency and security to real estate transactions by conducting title searches, examinations, closings and issuing title insurance to protect real property owners and mortgage lenders against losses from defects in titles.
