

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 22, 2012

Texas Land Title Association
512.472.6593 | tltat@tltat.com

El Paso Title Industry Professional Receives Prestigious Award from Statewide Title Industry Association

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state's oldest trade associations, has awarded Don Hughes, Senior Vice President, Lone Star Title Company of El Paso, the esteemed Professional Excellence Award. The award honors exceptional contributions and extraordinary achievement by those employees who exhibit outstanding customer service.

"We are thrilled to present Don with this award," said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA. "It's now more important than ever that we have dedicated members and volunteers to encourage growth and excellence in the Texas title industry."

Don Hughes has been in the land title industry for more than 27 years and has served as Senior Vice President at Lone Star Title Company of El Paso since 2003. With an extensive background in title examinations, he is responsible for underwriting matters for the company and works closely with the commercial closing department. Don holds a business degree from the University of Texas at Austin and is a Life Member of the Texas Exes. He and his wife have been married for 26 years, and together they have raised two sons. In his free time, he enjoys watching sports – especially football and hockey, and is an active member of his church.

About TLTA

Founded in 1908 and serving more than 11,000 professionals, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the land title industry in Texas. TLTA members provide certainty, efficiency and security to real estate transactions by conducting title searches, examinations, closings and issuing title insurance to protect real property owners and mortgage lenders against losses from defects in titles.