College Station Title Industry Professional Receives Prestigious Award from Statewide Title Industry Association

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state's oldest trade associations, has awarded Kary Mersmann, Closing Services Manager, University Title Company, the esteemed Professional Excellence Award. The award honors exceptional contributions and extraordinary achievement by those employees who exhibit outstanding customer service.

"We are thrilled to present Kary with this award," said Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA. "It's now more important than ever that we have dedicated members and volunteers to encourage growth and excellence in the Texas title industry."

Mersmann joined University Title Company in 1992 and has been an escrow officer for the past 15 years. She recently became a Certified Escrow Settlement Associate designated by TLTA for her extensive escrow experience and knowledge. She graduated from Texas A&M University in 1980 with a B.B.A. in Management and received the Rotary Club's VIVA Award in 2008 and is a sustaining member of the Junior League of Bryan-College Station, Inc. Along with her husband Larry, she has raised two children and loves to travel.

About TLTA

Founded in 1908 and serving more than 11,000 professionals, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the land title industry in Texas. TLTA members provide certainty, efficiency and security to real estate transactions by conducting title searches, examinations, closings and issuing title insurance to protect real property owners and mortgage lenders against losses from defects in titles.
