Austin Professional Receives Prestigious Award from Statewide Title Industry Association

AUSTIN – The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state's oldest trade associations, awarded Aaron Day, Director of Government Affairs and Counsel for TLTA, the esteemed James H. Garst President's Award during its Annual Conference and Business Meeting in Austin, June 20. The award recognizes the achievements of an individual who has shown outstanding service to the TLTA president during his or her year in office.

"Everyone in the Texas title business knows Aaron because they have seen the results of his work leading our industry's lobby team and regulatory efforts," said Randy Pittman, 2012-13 TLTA President and President/Co-Owner of West Texas Abstract & Title Company. "We are delighted to honor Aaron with this award in recognition of his tireless effort to lead our industry through each legislative session and regulatory issues at the Texas Department of Insurance, including rate and rule hearings and any other hearings or meetings where our industry needs representation."

Day began his lobbying career with the City of Fort Worth where he represented the city in the Legislature and in Washington, D.C. He also worked extensively on a variety of complex pieces of legislation impacting local governments throughout Texas and the U.S.

He graduated with honors from the University of Texas and also received his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law. He loves music and has served for 15 years as board chair for Anthropolos Arts, a non-profit organization that provides music education to at-risk and disadvantaged youth in Austin.

Day and his wife, Kristen, live in Austin and have two young sons, Colin and Elliott.

About TLTA

Founded in 1908 and serving more than 11,000 professionals, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the land title industry in Texas. TLTA members provide certainty, efficiency and security to real estate transactions by conducting title searches, examinations, closings and issuing title insurance to protect real property owners and mortgage lenders against losses from defects in titles.
